Community Christian School Celebrates Remarkable Junior Achievements

Stockbridge, GA – Community Christian School is proud to announce two of our outstanding juniors, Abigail Cooper and Cydney Gilkesson. These remarkable students have received well-deserved recognition from the esteemed BigFuture Collegeboard, further cementing our school's commitment to fostering academic excellence and dedication in our students.

Receiving recognition in the College Board's National Recognition Program is a clear testament to the exceptional talent and dedication exhibited by these two students. This prestigious acknowledgment not only offers access to a multitude of university scholarships but also positions them alongside the esteemed National Merit Scholar finalists. Abigail and Cydney's commitment to their education has yielded remarkable results, paving the way for promising future opportunities.

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to Abigail Cooper and Cydney Gilkesson for their outstanding achievements. We are confident that they will continue to shine brightly in their educational journeys and make significant contributions to society.
